The Fathers teach that it is not our success in the Christian life, but our effort which God sees and values; that it doesn't matter so much that we fall, but that we get up, repent, and try again, each time we stumble. It is the trying again; the repeated effort and struggle; the faith which makes a man continue to fight and not despair; the trust in God's mercy; the hope of eternal life, that make a Christian.

REMEMBER the SICK and SHUT-INS in your prayers.
