The Samaritan Woman

During this fifth Sunday of Pascha each one of us must strive for that "living water" each day so that we may never find ourselves spiritually parched for God's presence in our lives. Just as the Samaritan woman wanted to learn about Christ and asked Him "give me this water, that I may not thirst" we also each day must ask Christ to give us His "living water" so that it may spiritually sustain us during these difficult times that we live in as Christians. The more we humble ourselves and ask Christ for this "living water" the more our lives will be filled with the grace of the Holy Spirit spreading love and joy, not only within our own households, but to all those who encounter us and know us. By sharing the "living water" with others, we become true disciples and witnesses of our Risen Lord Jesus Christ.

REMEMBER the SICK and AFFLICTED in your prayers.
