Wisdom from the Saints: Praying at Home

Silence greatly helps in spiritual life. It is good for one to practice silence for about an hour a day: to test himself, to acknowledge his passions and to fight in order to cut them off and purify his heart. It is very good if there is a quiet room in the house which gives him the feeling of a monastic cell. There, 'in secret,' he can do his spiritual maintenance, to study and to pray. A little spiritual study done before prayer helps greatly. The soul warms up and the mind is transported to the spiritual realm. That's why when a person has many distractions during the day, he should rejoice if he has 10 minutes for prayer, or even two minutes to read something, so as to drive away distractions.

– St Paisios the Athonite
