23rd Sunday after Pentecost — Tone 6

Holy Martyrs Abibus, Samonas, & Gurias

Ephesians 2:4-10 | Luke 10:25-37

Today begins the Nativity Fast! May God give you good strength and good blessing to keep the fast and to grow in faith, love and joy during this Advent season! Please let me know how I can best minister to you in this time. As always I am available to hear confessions after most evening services, or via phone or video call, and for those not yet ready to return to Church, I am happy to (in a safe manner) bring you holy communion.

The Wednesday night Inter-parish book study via zoom is reading “Orthodox Worship: A Living Continuity with the Synagogue, the Temple, and the Early Church” Newcomers are always welcome.

Our parish library is always available to those interested; simply write down the title you’re checking out and the date so Fr. John can keep track of what goes where.

Living our Orthodoxy

“We must not artificially isolate ourselves from the reality of today’s world; rather, we must learn to use the best things the world has to offer, for everything good in the world – if we are only wise enough to see it – points to God, and we must make use of it. Too many people make the mistake of limiting Orthodoxy to church services, set prayers, and the occasional reading of a spiritual book. True Orthodoxy, however, requires a commitment that involves every aspect of our lives. One is Orthodox all the time, every day, in every situation of life – or one is not really Orthodox at all. For this reason, we must develop and Orthodox worldview and live it.”

– Blessed Fr. Seraphim Rose of Platina

Persevere in Prayer!

“Would you like to enter into this Paradise a little sooner? Then do this: when you pray, do not stop praying until you have aroused some sort of feeling toward God in your heart. This can be reverence, or devotion, or thanksgiving, or praise, or humility and contrition, or trust and hope. Do this also when you begin reading during your devotions: do not stop reading until you have felt the truth that you have read. If you pay attention to yourself, these two methods, by warming you up, are capable of keeping you under their influence all day. Work at carrying out these two methods precisely, and you will see for yourself what happens.”

St. Theophan the Recluse

“When you are praying alone, and your spirit is dejected, and you are wearied and oppressed by your loneliness, remember then, as always, that God the Trinity looks upon you with eyes brighter than the sun; also all the angels, your own Guardian Angel, and all the Saints of God. Truly they do; for they are all one in God, and where God is, there are they also. Where the sun is, thither also are directed all its rays. Try to understand what this means.”

St. John of Kronstadt

“True Fasting lies in rejecting evil, holding one’s own tongue, suppressing one’s hatred, and banishing one’s lust, evil words, lying, and betrayal of vows.”—St. Basil the Great
